“Grove Estate has an array of mainstream and alternative wines, multiple vintages of which are available through the cellar door or by mail order. On the alternative side is the 2003 Basazi (89 points) zinfandel, Sangiovese and Barbera blend offering an exotic, plush array of bright fruit and brushes of chocolate, blackberry, prune and spice, the tannins building on the finish. Decidedly mainstream is the 2001 Partners Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon (94 points) with a complex structure and texture behind its generous blackcurrant and blackberry fruit, all promising long life.”
